Dear [REDACTED]

I believe I owe you an apology for not inquiring as to your health before this late date. I sincerely hope that your hip is alright at this time and that you have no further difficulties with it.

An application for employment by a [REDACTED] has been referred to me for consideration. [REDACTED] He is at present [REDACTED] and Investigator of the [REDACTED] and is interested in employment in the Central Intelligence Agency. He has a master's degree from L.S.U. in English and in general looks as though he might be pretty good editorial material. His last grade with the government was a CAF-9 with OWI and from his present salary of $325 per month, it appears that he certainly would accept a CAF-7 at the present time. [REDACTED] requests that his present employer not be told that he is seeking other employment for fear he may jeopardize his present position.

I should like to have you write him a note and suggest that he interview you if he desires to become associated with our organization. I am returning his Form 57 to the Personnel Branch, CIA, suggesting that he be advised to contact you for an interview. Do not make any commitments to him, but let me know what you think of him as soon as you have completed the interview.

I might add that I am not interested in him for employment in Washington but thought that since he indicated that he desired to remain in [REDACTED] he might be interested in working on your staff.

Sincerely yours,
